

STATE DEBT CASE COMES UP TUESDAY

It Is Believed Virginia Will Oppose Motion for Postponement.

CONFERENCE IS HELD HERE

Attorneys Discuss Situation. Two Vacancies on Supreme Bench.

Although, as stated in The Times-Dispatch last Sunday, it is the purpose of counsel for West Virginia to ask for a continuance in the final hearing on the State debt question, indications are that the attorneys for Virginia will not sit quiescent and allow such a motion to go through by default.

Just before the adjournment of the Supreme Court of the United States last spring the attorneys on both sides argued the question of continuance. On October 11 for final argument on the exceptions filed by West Virginia to the report of Special Master Charles E. Littlefield, which constitutes the closing chapter in the case.

To all appearances, counsel for Virginia still expect to begin their argument next Tuesday at noon. There have been several conferences lately, including one held yesterday at the office of the Attorney-General. The

ONE BIG FOOL

But He Doesn't Live in Richmond Nor Read The Times-Dispatch

A man in Connecticut gave a doctor, a specialist in catarrh, $50 to cure him of this common yet most obnoxious disease.

The specialist gave him a bottle of medicine and told him when and how to use it.

The fool took the medicine home, took one dose, put it on a shelf and made no further effort to follow instructions.

Three months later, with the medicine still on the shelf, he told a friend that the specialist was a fake, that he had paid him $50 and still had catarrh as bad as ever.

This story is told for a purpose. HYOMIEI (pronounce it High-o-mie) won't cure catarrh if you don't breathe it; it will cure catarrh if you breathe it regularly.

Furthermore, you don't need to give a catarrh specialist $50 to cure you of catarrh, for the specialist is yet to be born who can write a better prescription than HYOMIEI.

Tragle's and druggists everywhere guarantee HYOMIEI to cure catarrh or money back. A complete outfit, which consists of a bottle of HYOMIEI, a hard rubber inhaler and simple instructions for use costs only $1.00. Separate bottles of HYOMIEI if afterwards needed cost but 50 cents. If you already own a HYOMIEI inhaler you can get a bottle of HYOMIEI at Tragle's for 50 cents. No stomach dosing—just breathe it.

Lawyers Busy.

Following this conference, Attorney-General Williams said there was nothing new in the situation. The lawyers on the Virginia side, he said, had been busy with preparations. He would not even say that the motion for continuance would be opposed, but added that he was guided by the wishes of the court. The Supreme Court of the United States will begin its annual session tomorrow at noon. Following its time-honored custom, it will at once adjourn to the next day. When the President is in Washington the court calls upon him on the first day of its term. In this case, President Taft being away, Justice Harlan, acting as president, will announce that fact, and adjournment will be taken.

Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Brewer are dead, and while Justice Brandeis's resignation is not effective until November 20, it is understood that his health will not permit him to appear on the bench at this term. Ex-Governor Hughes, of New York, has been appointed to the court, but there seems to be a doubt as to whether he will take his seat at once or will follow the custom and stay away until after he has been confirmed by the Senate in December. The fact that there are several vacancies is made the basis of the argument by counsel for West Virginia for a continuance.

Asks Continuance.

Attorney-General W. J. Conley has assigned the following reasons for a postponement:

1. Because the controversy herein is between two sovereign States.
2. Because the basic questions involved are of great and far-reaching importance. They involve all the measures and acts resulting in the creation of the State of West Virginia. The controversy has long been pending and created widely different convictions between the citizens of the two States. They have been the subject of legislation and public discussion to such a degree," he says, "that the hearing and determination of this case before the honorable court to hear and determine the cause which has been heretofore decided 'without prejudice to any question.'"
3. "Because in the present posture of this suit, all questions in respect to law and merits are still open and stand for argument and judgment, except the question of the jurisdiction of this honorable court to hear and determine the cause which has been heretofore decided 'without prejudice to any question.'"

POLICE COURT CASES

Mr. Wray Reports That Pickpocket Stole His Watch.

C. C. Wray, of Mineral City, Louisa county, reported to the police yesterday that his watch had been snatched from his pocket at the Main Street Station Friday night. Wray said that he was in the crowd, and feeling a tug at his chain, found that his watch was gone. The pickpocket quickly made his escape.

Jackson, charged with shooting William Finnegun with a shotgun, was bailed in the Police Court yesterday morning in the sum of $1,000. He will be tried October 13.

Thomas Richardson, who stabbed to death George Thomas, appeared and his case was continued to October 11. John Lee, on the charge of kidnapping, will be heard on October 11. At that time he probably will be turned over to the Culpeper authorities for trial on the charge of felonious assault on Little Rowe, colored, employed at the home of Greanor Neal.

CASE GOES OVER

Negro Charged With Helping Murderer Escape From Police.

James T. Harris, colored, was in the Police Court yesterday morning, charged with aiding Thomas Richardson, who killed George Thomas Friday night, to escape. His case was postponed to October 11, and he was bailed in the sum of $300.

Edman Folkes, who arrested Richardson, made the complaint against Harris. It is said that Richardson ran into the clock shop operated by Harris, followed by Alexander Coleman, who asked him to hold the murderer while he called a policeman. Harris, instead of holding the man, allowed him to get away before the officer arrived.

MR. HUTZLER RECOVERING

Chairman of City School Board Not Seriously Injured.

At the Memorial Hospital last night it was stated that Charles Hutzler is recovering from the effects of the accident in which he was run down by an automobile on Friday morning, and that it was believed that he was resting more comfortably than at any time since he had been brought there. With the physician's examination having disclosed no serious injuries, Mr. Hutzler's complete recovery is expected in a short time. Universal regret is being expressed at the accident, and all day yesterday messages of sympathy continued to pour in to Mr. Hutzler at the hospital.

FIGHT OVER CRAP GAME

Vermont Kenney Receives Several Severe Cuts.

With his face and head badly carved, Vermont Kenney, colored, came to the First Police Station last night, complaining that while engaged in a peaceful game of craps he had been cut by an unknown member of his own race, whom he was very desirous that the police arrest.

There were several long slits in Kenney's face and on his head. He gave a description of his assailant, Kenney hurried home to rest his wounded face, and will appear in court at his opposite in the little game is arrested before court is called to-morrow morning.

DEPOSED KING ON U. S. CRUISER

Manuel Is Reported to Have Sailed Toward Lisbon on Des Moines.

INTERVENTION RUMORED

Reported That United States, Germany and England Will Support Deposed Monarch.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]

London, October 8.—Although not confirmed at this hour, considerable excitement has been caused here by a dispatch from Madrid saying that King Manuel had sailed from Gibraltar toward Lisbon on the American cruiser Des Moines. The dispatch adds that King Manuel will start a counter-revolution, in which action he will be supported by the United States, England and Germany.

While other members of the royal party at Gibraltar disembarked to-day, King Manuel remained on the royal yacht and considerable importance is attached to this mere shred of fact.

Oporto is said to be still royalist, and it is likely that there are many strong adherents of the young King in that city.

The concerted attack on all religious orders, particularly the Jesuits, who were notified to quit Portugal within twenty-four hours, shows that the predominant portion of the program of heads of the republic is the divorce of church and state. The latest reports from Lisbon tell of the bombardment of religious houses attended with considerable loss of life.

The anti-clerical feeling is not confined to the capital, but is sweeping like a wave over the entire country, and it is not unreasonable to suppose that the movement may spread into Spain and fan into flame the smoldering embers of the recent outbreak in that country. Such an outbreak would no doubt mean the overthrow of Alfonso and the adoption of republicanism. The undercurrent of feeling is easily seen in a dispatch from Madrid saying that the governors of several Spanish provinces have telegraphed the capital that the Republicans seek permission to celebrate the anniversary of Professor Ferrer's execution on the 13th and the triumph of the Portuguese revolution.

Warning on Clergy.

Lisbon, October 8.—The proclamation of the republic of Portugal is being received by the people generally in a matter of fact way.

While order has been in measure restored, the fear still prevails that the attacks against the religious establishments may become general. The most marked feature of the situation now is resentment shown by a portion of the populace against the clergy.

Last night Republican troops attacked the Jesuit monastery in the Rua do Quelhas, after they had been fired upon from the windows. One priest was killed, and the others were placed under arrest. The hoisting of the British flag over the building in the effect of checking the fire of the troops.

Armed bandits have descended upon the houses of various officials closely affiliated with the monarchy, but the property was not damaged. Because of this condition of affairs, police measures have been increased, and patrolling parties have been sent out to guard against marauders and rioters.

The government has granted amnesty in the case of all political crimes and has revived a former law increasing the liberty of the press.

A band of revolutionary adherents to-day sought to enter the college of the Portuguese foreign missions at Loutura, which also is the residence of the papal nuncio, under pretense that arms were hidden there. The nuncio ran up the papal flag and refused to allow the men to enter the building.

The Mayor dissuaded the insurgents from making an attack, but finally the nuncio consented to admit a small number. They left after a fruitless search.

The government is making strong efforts to calm the anti-clerical agitation. The Minister of the Interior has been touring the streets in an automobile dispersing manifestos. Priests are set upon wherever seen. A few of the churches having priests recognized by the government have opened their doors.

An armed band to-day entered Trinas Convent, which was occupied by 150 Portuguese Sisters of Charity, some of whom resisted. A dozen of the nuns were wounded. Later the troops occupied the convent. The wounded sisters were transferred to a hospital. The others were taken away in closed vans, their destination being unknown.

Report Dismissed.

Washington, D. C., October 8.—Officials of the Navy Department to-night dismissed as ridiculous the report emanating from Madrid that the United States had entered into a pact with France and Germany to restore King Manuel to the Portuguese throne.

No one could be found to discuss the report at the State Department. However, it is known that the cruiser Des Moines has really been ordered to proceed from Gibraltar to Lisbon for the protection of Americans and American interests there, but that the United States should interfere for the purpose of restoring a monarchy is regarded here as preposterous.

BIG DAY AT FORT BLACKMORE.

Stuart and Swanson Discuss Campaign Issues Before Large Crowd.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Gate City, Va., October 8.—An immense crowd heard H. C. Stuart and Senator Swanson at Fort Blackmore, Stuart county, to-day. The large building was full, all standing room being occupied, and the crowd was around the doors and windows.

The speakers presented the various issues of the campaign, assailing the present tariff bill mercilessly and defending the Constitution of Virginia. Unbounded enthusiasm characterized the meeting and determined. Yesterday Mr. Stuart addressed an overflow crowd at Nickelsville, while Senator Swanson addressed voters at Clinchport. Very little ovations were given Mr. Stuart and Senator Swanson at all their meetings in the county this week.

WILL MAKE NORTHERN TRIP.

President Alderman to Visit Long Island City and New York.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Charlottesville, Va., October 8.—President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia, will take a Northern trip the latter part of the month. He will speak at Borough of Queens Teachers' Association, Long Island City, N. Y., on October 22, taking as his subject, "The Educational Achievement of a Generation in the South." Afterward he will be in New York City for several days, and attend a meeting of the General Educational Board, on October 25.

Trains in Collision.

Elmira, N. Y., October 8.—East-bound Lackawanna passenger train, No. 14, crashed into the rear of a local freight train pulling into a siding at the Chemung River bridge, just west of Waverly, early to-day. The caboose was demolished, and two men in one car with a trotting horse, were instantly killed. The passengers were jolted badly, but none was hurt.

JEWEL ROBBERY

Thief Takes Howell Gems Without Breaking Into Apartment.

Without leaving any evidence as to how the robbery was committed, a thief entered the apartment of Paul D. Howell, 10 West Grace Street, Friday afternoon, and got away with more than $800 in jewelry, the property of Mrs. Howell. The loss was reported to police headquarters yesterday and two detectives were put on the case. Though they are investigating the theft with care there seems but little chance of catching the robber. There is absolutely no trace to show that the flat was broken into.

The last jewelry consists of four diamond rings, three of them being set
